The meeting was called to order by President Eugene Hausner, at 7:00 P.M., in the old town hall, Plain, WI. Members present included Lucy Herbrand, Mary Jayne Liegel, Mary Prem, Bill Bergman, and Gene & Georgene Hausner.

The secretary's minutes of June 13, 2019 were reviewed, and a motion by Bill Bergman, and seconded by Lucy Herbrand. The motion carried.

The treasurer's report was presented by Mary Jayne Liegel. There was a motion by Lucy Herbrand, and seconded by Mary Prem to approve as presented. The motion carried.

The 2019 Women Suffrage exhibits were reviewed by the members. Mary Jayne is looking for the ballot relating to the 19th Amendment approved by the Wisconsin Legislature. Several contacts will be made to find the answer to her question. Gene would contact Dan Kettner, retired educator from the River Valley area to seek out more information.

The nominees for the 2019 Man and Women of the Year have accepted, and will be Gary Weiss and Mercille Floreke. Lucy Herbrand made the contacts and has assembled the biography for each of the nominees. The flowers have been ordered and Mary Jayne will pick up and provide to Gary and Marcel at 10:30 a.m. on Sunday at the street intersection, across from St. Luke's School. Dick Alt will provide the vehicle for the 2019 Man and Women in the parade to start at 11:00 a.m. Gene will contact the Linda Schwanke, from the Home News for the parade photo coverage for publication in the paper.

The OFTHS officers for the coming year were discussed. It was noted that Marian Burmester indicated she would not accept the nomination for Vice President. There was a motion by Bill Bergman, and seconded by Mary Prem to have the secretary cast a unanimous ballot for existing officers and board members for the next program year. The motion carried.

The group reviewed the individuals who have volunteered for the open houses, at the Museum, for the months of June through September, June 2nd - Mary Jayne, June 16 — Gene & Georgene, July 7th - Gene & Georgene, July 21st - Mary Jayne, July 28th - Gene & Georgene, August 4th - Lucy, August 18th - Mary Jayne, September 1st - Open, Sept 15th - Mary Jayne.

There was the question of, what OFTHS should do for Plain's October Fest. There was a suggestion that OFTHS should focus on themes within the museum to encourage persons to visit. No action was taken.

A motion by Lucy Herbrand, and seconded by Mary Jayne to adjourn. The motion carried.

Respectively submitted.

The meeting was called to order by President Eugene Hausner, at 7:00 P.M., in the old town hall, Plain, WI. Members present included Lucy Herbrand, Mary Jayne Liegel, Mary Prem, Marian Burmester, Yvonne Kraemer, and Gene & Georgene Hausner.

The secretary's minutes of July 11, 2019 were reviewed, and a motion by Lucy Herbrand, and seconded by Mary Jayne Liegel. The motion carried.

The treasurer's report was presented by Mary Jayne Liegel. There was a motion by Marian Burmester, and seconded by Lucy Herbrand to approve as presented. The motion carried.

The 2019 Women Suffrage exhibits were reviewed by the members. Mary Jayne is looking for the ballot relating to the 19Th Amendment approved by the Wisconsin Legislature. Marian will work up a ballot to use. Need some one to hand out the ballots at the museum on that day.

The 2019 Man and Women of the Year program was reviewed, and pointed that a pillow is needed for the vehicle to allow an adequate setting for the nominees to sit on during the parade.

The members discussed the offer of the Robert and Mary Pulvermacher residence for possible use by the OFTHS. The members thanked the Pulvermacher's for the offer, but decided to not purchase the residence.

The members thanked Lucy Herbrand for taking pictures of the Man & Women of 2019, and sharing the photos with them for their consideration to participate in the annual event.

Marian Burrmester suggested putting articles in the local newspaper about historical photos currently on file at the museum for their reference to encourage a visit the museum.

A motion by Mary Jayne Liegel, and seconded by Lucy Herbrand to adjourn. The motion carried.

Respectively submitted.

The meeting was called to order by President Eugene Hausner, at 7:00 P.M., in the old town hall, Plain, WI. Members present included Lucy Herbrand, Mary Jayne Liegel, Mary Prem, and Gene & Georgene Hausner.

The secretary's minutes of August 8, 2019 were reviewed, with an amendment to write up a list of the items needed for the Man & Women of the Year, to be retained in a box for the chairperson. Lucy Herbrand volunteered to complete the task. There was a motion by Lucy Herbrand, and seconded by Mary Prem. The motion carried.

The treasurer's report was presented by Mary Jayne Liegel. There was a motion by Georgene Hausner, and seconded by Lucy Herbrand to approve as presented. The motion carried.

The 2019 Women Suffrage "hand outs and ballots" were reviewed by the members. Two members will provide the hand outs, and encourage the public to stop at the museum to vote, or not vote, and receive a complimentary German brand beverage. Mary Jayne and Bill will provide the hand outs at the Strassenfest event uptown, while Georgene and Gene will staff the voting booth area at the museum.

Andy and Rosy Prem donated a goose down pillows and mattress to the OFTHS. We need to identify a dry cleaner that will clean the items before displaying at the museum.

A wooden broom handle, which was carved as a wood handle attached to wooden links, was donated to the museum by Richard Dahmen.

The annual community event, "Kris Kringle" planned by the village was discussed, and no action was taken.

A motion by Lucy Herbrand, and seconded by Bill Bergman to adjourn. The motion carried.
